

1. Welcome by David Nixon, Area Dean, who chaired the meeting.
2. Act of Worship led by Rev Louise Grace with Bible reading Mark 6:30-44
3. Main Focus: *An overview of Deanery and Diocese: The Right Revd Jackie Searle, Bishop of Crediton

Bishop Jackie began with the news she had received that day that the Strategic Development Bid for St Matthew's had been successful so that it would be a Resource church in Exeter.

She then reflected on the Bible passage with comments on the local context at diocesan, deanery and parish level under 5 headings.

1. Edge and Centre In a large geographical area as Exeter diocese she hears the comment 'it all happens in Exeter'. She encouraged us to think about what happens at the edge and at the centre, to hold strategic change – overview, vision, mission action plans; alongside emergent change – what bubbles up, perhaps at the edge.
2. Sending and Gathering in Mark 6:7 Jesus sent out the 12 disciples while in 6:30 they gathered back and 'told him all that they had done and taught'. The importance of telling and sharing stories across the diocese and deanery with a breadth of diversity. She commented on the church planting that is happening in Plymouth and in Exeter with different models or styles. She asked the question 'what does it mean for all parishes with different theological traditions, urban and rural, for church planting?'
3. Coming and Going Mark 6:31 Jesus calls his disciples to come away for a rest. If we are to 'serve the people of Devon with joy' and not with exhaustion – the importance of space and time for God. Coming and going is an ancient Hebrew idiom/blessing see Psalm 121:8.
4. Sheep and shepherds Mark 6:34 Jesus had compassion for the crowd and he first teaches them before any practical needs are met. Bishop Jackie challenged us to remember that people today still have huge spiritual needs but how can we meet them? She also said that there is 'no mission without compassion'.
5. Taking and Blessing In the section from v 37-43 she noted that there is a lot of counting and that finding out and noting or counting what is important is part of mission. She also reminded us to think of our local contexts and whom we can partner with – who may have a few small loaves and fish.

In the discussion that followed the importance of sharing stories – over meals, in sermons – was emphasised. These should include successes and disappointments/failures/struggles. Network church encourages people to tell their 'God stories' and that it is good to listen and encourage people to share in Church first and then be able to share such stories in daily life. There was general consensus that we make room for more discussion about stories at a future Synod meeting and the synod standing committee will plan appropriately. ACTION: STANDING COMMITTEE

She also mentioned that Fr Robin Eastoe had just marked 40 years as a priest and a celebration eucharist is on Saturday 29 June. Sheila Swarbrick reminded people that St Petrock's church now hosts displays by different organisations and that the YMCA will be in July. She also noted the annual St Stephen's lunchtime concerts on the 4 Thursdays in July.
